Cobb facility selected as No. 1 water treatment plant of year

From staff reports

MARIETTA — The Cobb County-Marietta Water Authority Hugh A. Wyckoff Water Treatment Plant has been honored as Water Plant of the Year by the Georgia Association of Water Professionals. Brian Smith of the CCMWA was awarded Top Operator of the Year for District 3, also. District 3 includes most of metro Atlanta.

"This award signifies our organization's commitment to excellence and to the protection of public health and safety," says Glenn Page, general manager of CCMWA. "Providing reliable, high quality and affordable drinking water is our mission at the Water Authority, and GAWP's recognition proves the dedication of not only the organization, but also of each individual staff member. To receive an award of this nature during a major plant construction project affirms our belief that our success lies in our people."

The Cobb County-Marietta Water Authority is the second largest provider of drinking water in Georgia and provides treated drinking water to Cobb County, Paulding County, the Douglasville-Douglas County Water and Sewer Authority, the Cherokee County Water and Sewerage Authority, Marietta, Smyrna, Austell, Powder Springs, Mountain Park, Woodstock and Lockheed Martin.
